Golden rules:

- Select your classes as you wish without further notice if you follow the golden rules.
- Please respect the level of the classes. Find your own level in the table. If any doubt contact the secretariat during the weekend and we will assist you finding your level.
- You are free to participate at classes below your own level. Be polite to the ones belonging to the level.
- You are NOT allowed to participate in classes above your own level. This will slow down the teaching and make others unhappy about the class.
- Follow the teacher's instructions throughout the classes, also when it comes to changing partners.
- If you usually dance non-cuban salsa styles, please select one level below your regular dance level.
